

DAILY SENTINEL.

THURSDAY MORNING, JAN. 22.

Address of Judge Perkins.

The Address of Judge Perkins, delivered before the Indianapolis Association, on Tuesday evening, January 13, will be published in pamphlet form, and be ready for delivery to-day. This Address is an able discussion of the questions now before the country, and should be largely circulated. Price, 60 cents per 100 copies. Orders are solicited at once, as we shall not keep the type standing. Address this office.

A Valuable Document.

We propose to publish, in pamphlet form, the able treatise of Judge Perkins on the subject of the most comprehensive and forcible which has been written on that subject, with the address of the State Central Committee on the same which produced the recent political revolution in Indiana. Both will make one pamphlet of 16 pages, which we will furnish at 41 per hundred. This document will be ready by early of the month of Indiana. Address orders to:

ELDER, HARKNESS & BINGHAM,
November 21, 1862.
Indianapolis, Ind.

Job Printing.

We are now ready to do all kinds of plain and fancy Job Printing, in the best style, on short notice, and as cheap as any other office. We have competent hands, good presses, a fine assortment of paper and cards, and we can do good and cheap work. All kinds of books, briefs, catalogues, &c., printed in the best style and on short notice. We ask the patronage of Democrats, and all others that want printing done.

To Local Advertisers.—Rates of advertising in the local column will hereafter be as follows: For ten lines or less, $1.00. Over ten lines, ten cents a line. No notice will be inserted until paid for.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

Buckwheat Flour at O. B. Stout & Bro's.

The Best Family—Chickering & Sons' and Stearns & Sons', at Willard & Stewart's, No. 4 Bates House. 16m

Diaries.—Mrs. A. Thompson & Son have a fine assortment of Diaries. Every citizen and soldier ought to have one.

If you want a good silk hat, and we know by experience that none other is desirable, go to Bak & McVey's. They make it a point to keep the best hat in the market. 214

Board wanted for a gentleman and lady in a private family, where there are no other boarders. Good room and board required. Price do object. Address Box 1325, Postoffice.

A CARD.—Not having time to see our patrons personally, they will confer a great favor by calling at our office and settling with our bookkeeper, J. E. Pyle. Respectfully,
JAMESON & FUCHSBERGER.
192w

The members of the Legislature will bear in mind that the place for the office of the cap is decidedly at Bamberg's, No. 16 East Washington street, old Sentinel Building, whose shelves are always crowded with goods of the latest style. 92w

CHANGE OF TIME.—The passenger trains on the Madison Road now arrive at 11:00 o'clock A. M. The change is only a few minutes, and the time was 10:50 A. M. The correction will be made in the time table on the outside of our paper to-morrow.

A very desirable 2 1/2 story brick residence of eight rooms, with cellar, porch and all the usual conveniences, on the corner of Delaware and Michigan streets. Will give some credit if desired. For sale by Frank Smith, licensed Real Estate Agent. Price, $4,000.

ALADDIN.—The lovers of the beautiful and gorgeous in art will bear in mind that the management of the Metropolitan are getting up the great spectacular drama of Aladdin in a style of magnificence never before exhibited in the West. The curtain will first rise upon this grand display next Monday evening.

GAME.—Fifty dozen Quails, 20 dozen Rabbits, 20 dozen Chickens, and a choice lot of Turkeys, just received at O. B. Stout & Bro's.

THE FAIR.—The fair at Masonic Hall last night, anticipated, was largely attended. The display of articles for sale was very attractive, and the business done by the fair saleswomen was extensive. We do not know what the sales would foot up, but the ladies were busy all the time. Of course everybody was happy. The fair continues to-night.

HONESTY.—When the roll of Senators and Representatives was being called yesterday afternoon in the joint convention for the election of State Prison Directors, Mr. Leeds, of Howard, replied, when his name was called: "I vote an honest Abolition ticket." It was an honest confession, and quite different from the majority of his party, who vote Abolition and preach conservatism.

Ladies' Clock sale No. 2, at Featherston's Auction Room, No. 74 East Washington street, on Friday, Dec. 24, 1862, at 10 o'clock A. M. The best lot of clocks ever sold at auction in this city. Mr. Steele, the renowned clock maker, will be present and give his attention to the sale. Everybody come and get bargains.

WM. E. FEATHERSTON, Auctioneer.

JUDICIAL DECISION.—A new case arose yesterday before Judge Perkins, the first of the kind, and was disposed of in a manner that will check applications for a habeas corpus in similar cases. A minor applied for his discharge from the 15th battery, on the ground of non age, viz: that he was only seventeen years of age. When he was heard he was of full age. The Judge held that his oath of enlistment was conclusive against his application, and remanded him to his company with some good advice.

O. B. Stout & Bro. have a choice lot of Vinegar Pickles and Pigs' Feet in cages and half barrels.

THE CONCERT.—The Gottschalk concert is all the talk now among our musical friends. We continue our extracts from the notices of the leading critics of the United States. The New York Tribune, in the course of a long article, remarks that:

"Mr. Gottschalk has just given two brilliant concerts at Nolo's Saloon. In these he displayed a prodigious power of execution which places him beyond his rivals. In execution, clearness, rapidity, sonority, power of sweeping over the keys, trilling and iterating notes, human fingers cannot surpass him. He has exhausted the dazzling possibilities of the instrument. I have never seen him outbreathed all we have heard here; not necessary to name Thalberg on the list, who was deficient in fervor. * * * Mr. Gottschalk's reputation is now as firmly established in Europe as that of any other living pianist, both in performance and piano transcription."

Abuse of the Habeas Corpus.

HEADQUARTERS, Indianapolis, Jan. 21, 1863.

General Order No. 1.

Minors have enlisted and taken the oath that they were eighteen years of age. This has been done with the tacit consent of parents or guardians, who have received their bounty, and then applied for the discharge of the minor.

Where minors, thus sworn, have been discharged from non age, with their own consent, they will be promptly arrested and dealt with for perjury.

Ample quarters are furnished in the penitentiary, for a reasonable term of service to the State, which may be made a wholesome set off to the loss of their services to the General Government in the field, if not as honorable.

By order of
COL. HENRY B. CARRINGTON,
Commanding Post.

THE THEATRE.—The Shakedown of Mr. Waller.

Last night was a masterpiece of acting, and drew forth commendation from every one who witnessed it. It was superb. The attendance, owing to the soft mud which overflows our streets, was not large, but the walking in the streets, swimming in a small scale. Many of the patrons of the drama who remained at home lost a rare treat.

To-night Mrs. Waller plays Meg Merrilies in the drama of Guy Mannering.

Go to O. B. Stout & Bro's for the choicest Fresh Oysters in the city by the can.

On motion of Mr. H. A. Fletcher, it was ordered that Thomas Lewis be employed as assistant Jesse Jones in the investigation of the claim of Mr. A. F. Shattuck.

On motion of Mr. Brown, said persons were directed to complete their work within a week. On motion of Mr. Brown, the Committee on Accounts were directed to hereafter prepare all vouchers allowing claims by the 15th of each month.

Motions were adopted instructing the Street Commissioner to have all posts removed from all sidewalks owned by the City, and to notify the owners of the Old Baptist Church lot to remove the earth from the sidewalk and gutters, on Maryland street, recently placed there. Adjourned.

Legislative Summary.

Wednesday, January 21, 1863.

SENATE.—The Joint Resolution to amend the Constitution so as to enable cities, towns, &c., to levy and collect special taxes for school purposes was debated at considerable length and finally passed. Messrs. Brown, Emerson, and Mauchfield spoke for, and Messrs. Claypool, Johnson and Linder against, its passage. Mr. Dunsmuir spoke of its legal effect in a provision of the Constitution that it would conflict with the Tenth Article of the Government and accompanying documents were sent in by his Excellency and laid on the table until to-morrow.

A vote of thanks to the surgeons and nurses who have rendered aid to sick and wounded soldiers of Indiana was passed.

The Senate went into Joint Committee with the House in the afternoon.

HOUSE.—Resolutions adopted for the furtherance by the General Government of agricultural interests, calling on the President of the State to report why he has not distributed the bounty fund voted by the last Legislature for the organization of the militia; relative to the President of the Board of Prison Directors, asking the Attorney General to give an opinion as to whether said Wallace had not vacated said office by accepting a position under Secretary Chase. The greater part of the day was consumed in the discussion of the resolution relative to the Attorney General to give an opinion as to whether said Wallace had not vacated said office by accepting a position under Secretary Chase.

THE HABEAS CORPUS DECISION IN WISCONSIN.

Ac., Ac., Ac., Ac., Ac.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—A special to the Herald says:

The news from the Army of the Potomac caused a great deal of excitement here. The character of the news has not yet been promulgated.

Refugees from Richmond, which place they left on Monday, reported that the week previous to their departure there was great excitement in Richmond, owing to the report that a large Union force, numbering 80,000, was on the way to Weldon, N. C., and that a large force of gunboats was in the waters of North Carolina.

About the same time Gen. Henderson's division of Jackson's army, numbering about 15,000, passed through Richmond and went South, which fact added much to the excitement.

The floating battery, Merrimack, is reported to be a perfect failure, being too heavy.

These refugees report further that Richmond is well fortified at every point. The fortifications are guarded by a small number of men.

They have over 1,000 guns in position around the city.

The main body of the rebel army seems to be about midway between Fredericksburg and Richmond on the Rappahannock.

Col. Perry Windham, 1st N. J. Cavalry, and Acting Brig. General of cavalry at Chancellery, has resigned his commission in the service.
